

THE LEGEND OF

ULTRAMARIJN

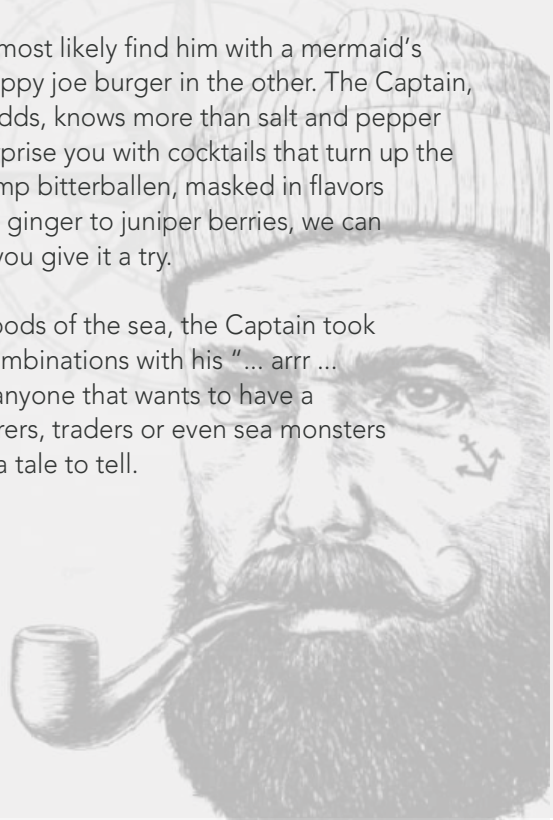

With a shimmering late afternoon sun glistening off the calm waters of Scheveningen, you can hear murmurs about the adventures of the sea. Most tales are those of monstrous creatures and ruthless pirates raiding their way across the ocean. Leaving no safe course for travel. Yet, there is one story yet to be told. It is that of Ultramarijn, the cosiest secret hidden within the algae.

The legend goes by the name of the Captain and his hidden gem Ultramarijn. A gastropub soaked in dark lighting, never ending waves of music, shimmering ambiance and mixologists who seemingly never stop moving. The place where seafarers from all ends of the ocean sat around the table to trade their newfound treasures from the Spice Islands. A pit stop for those on their way back home.

The owner, you might ask? You will most likely find him with a mermaid's bikini cocktail in one hand and a sloppy joe burger in the other. The Captain, a Dutch legend whom, against all odds, knows more than salt and pepper to spice food and drinks. He will surprise you with cocktails that turn up the heat, or of course, some Dutch shrimp bitterballen, masked in flavors you have never tasted before. From ginger to juniper berries, we can testify you'll be hooked as soon as you give it a try.

Moving away from the mercurial moods of the sea, the Captain took it upon himself to share his spice combinations with his "... arrr ... hearties of The Hague". Note that anyone that wants to have a taste is his hearty. His mate. Wanderers, traders or even sea monsters never leave this gastropub without a tale to tell.

Ultramarijn is a place for stories.

MEDICINE WITH A HINT OF

GIN & TONIC

The iconic G&T is a refresher you cannot miss these days. Gin originated as a medicinal liquor made by monks and alchemists across Europe, to provide 'aqua vita' from distillates of grapes and grains.

ULTRAMARIJN

€10,50

Our house G&T, which gives you "Dutch Courage" to sail further with hints of citrus & spices.

Dutch courage gin, London Essence Indian tonic, orange zest

TANQUERAY NO.10

€12,00

This is a true classic. Cures anything you've got going on in that head of yours according to The Captain.

Tanqueray No.10, London Essence orange and elderflower, grapefruit

GIN MARE CAPRI

€13,50

When the Captain visited Spain he loved the mediterranean vibe, he searched for a bottle to bring this vibe back "home".

Gin Mare Capri, London Essence grapefruit and rosemary, olives and thyme

BOBBY'S

€13,50

One of our sailors' favourites with traditional Indonesian botanicals, but made closely to our harbour in Schiedam.

Bobby's Dry gin, London Essence orange and elderflower, orange and cloves

SIR EDMOND

€13,50

Edmond is a true rebel, who seeks a life without boundries, sounds a bit like the Captain in his early days. He's just a more vanilla... like this gin.

Sir Edmond gin, London Essence pomelo and pink pepper, lime and allspice

KYRÖ

€14,50

Straight from the Finnish nature this gin brings a deep crispiness and herbal note.

Kyrö Napue gin, London Essence Indian tonic, rosemary

HERMIT

€14,50

On one of the journeys we discovered a Hermit had climbed up the ship! Giving this gin some salt but also hints of citrus

Hermit gin, London Essence grapefruit and rosemary, grapefruit zest and semphire

If you don't like tonic, the Captain suggests to try your choice of gin with London Essence ginger ale.

IS IT REALLY STILL FRUIT OR...

APPLES, GRAPES & AGAVES

In the world you have many apples, some are sour, sweet, crispy. They all come in different sizes and flavours. The Capitan found some distillates from apples close to our harbour. But abroad he also found distillations of grapes, agaves and even rice. So, time to get your daily dose of vitamins - sort of.
